MJ Hudson ranked by PEI as top 3 law firm of the year in Fund Formation and Transactions categories

MJ Hudson | Law is delighted to announce that it has been named as one of the top 3 EMEA law firms of the year in two categories in the 2018 PEI Awards. MJ Hudson was named as a top 3 firm for private equity fund formation and also as a top 3 firm for private equity transactions.

The other top 3 firms were Proskauer Rose and Simpson Thatcher & Bartlett (Fund Formation) and Clifford Chance and Debevoise & Plimpton (Transactions).

The PEI Awards remain the only honours in the industry decided solely by individuals in the industry, who vote in their thousands every year.

2018 has been a strong year for MJ Hudson | Law, advising numerous managers on fund formations and transactions and picking up wins and commendations at the Lawyer awards and the Drawdown awards.

Partner and Head of M&A, Andrew Mills, said:

“This accolade is a testament to the skill and breadth of knowledge of our lawyers. In difficult circumstances and against challenging timeframes, we have continued to deliver for our clients.”

Partner and Head of Funds, Shervin Shameli, said:

“We are honoured to have been shortlisted in these two categories, which highlights the development of two of our core practice areas, and would like to thank everyone that voted for us.”
