MJ Hudson announces official partnership with Harlequins Women

Leading asset management consultancy, MJ Hudson, today announced its multi-year sponsorship of Harlequins. The firm is the first official partner of Harlequins Women, which currently competes in the Tyrrells Premier 15s.

Wearing MJ Hudson's brand on the back of their shirts, the squad have won all three of their opening matches against Richmond FC, Worcester Warriors Women and, most recently, Gloucester Hartpury on Saturday 5 October (39-12). Harlequins Women currently sit at the top of the League table on 15 points.

Matthew Hudson, CEO of MJ Hudson said:

"It's fantastic to have the opportunity to support this incredible team of inspiring women. For those who have yet to experience it, the women's game is fluid, fast and very exciting. We want to work with Harlequins to raise the profile of the sport and its players, especially as we approach the Rugby World Cup in 2021. We also greatly look forward to entertaining our clients and partners at The Stoop. Come On You Quins!"

The Harlequins Women squad is one that is filled with international talent from a range of nations including England, Scotland, Ireland, Italy, Wales and Sweden, many of whom will be hoping to represent their respective countries in New Zealand, in 2021.

Harlequins Women centre, Rachel Burford said:

"We are so excited that MJ Hudson has come on board to sponsor us and we can't wait for them to come down to the Stoop and cheer us on."

Harlequins' Commercial Director, Alex Goldschmidt said:

"Harlequins is fully committed to creating a world class environment for its female athletes and ensuring that all those that pull on the Quarters are provided with the support they need to be the best athletes they can be. This exciting new Partnership very much reflects our long-term vision. The Club is proud of the full-time environment that we have created for our players, which not only includes elite-level on-field support but also the provision of development opportunities with its commercial partners. We very much look forward to working with MJ Hudson as we continue to grow the game and drive awareness and audience growth for women's sport across the globe."
